Ord fra Presidenten

Thank-you to those who helped with last month's social: Debera & Richard Ellingboe, Norm & Charlotte Larsen, Bob & Nita Haagenson, Luella Grangaard, Jim & Phyllis Peterson, Walt Wisler, John Strom, and Ronna Clymens; Tusen Takk.

We are so fortunate. We have benefited from opportunities not available to all lodges. In recent years we have enjoyed the performance of a famous high school folk dance group from Wisconsin, the talents of an award winning rosemalar from Idaho, the performances of two classical pianists from Norway, a concert by the famous Nidaros Cathedral Boys' Choir, performances and programs from members of other lodges, as well as cultural and historical programs by our own members. We truly do have something for everyone.

In April, I attended the District Board meeting in Oakland to coincide with the 100th Anniversary celebration of Bjornstjerne Bjornson Lodge #14. 100 years - Wow! We will be celebrating our 20th anniversary this October. We are starting to make plans, now. Also in April, Nate Craig and I participated in C.O.D.'s International Day. A few days later, I had a Norway table at Amelia Earhart Elementary School for their Festival of Nations. The children enjoyed coloring a Norwegian Fjord horse and rosemaling designs. Of course, the trolls are always a big hit with the children. Charlotte Larsen presented our saved Box Tops for Education to Oasis Elementary School in Thermal. Keep clipping these box tops.

SYTTENDE MAI is the 17th of May, Norway's Constitution Day. Our celebration will be on Saturday, the 15th. For the potluck dinner, we encourage bringing open faced sandwiches. Even if you're not much of a cook, we have suggestions and hints to help you. Be daring and try something new! Be sure to come early for some fun and Norwegian vaffler. Hurrah!

*Fraternally,
Nancy Madson*

Piano Concert at Hope Lutheran Church

The Piano Concert at Hope Lutheran Church turned out to be a very nice concert. However, it was disappointing to see that so few of our lodge's members showed up. With that being said, Knut Erik Jensen delivered a great concert introducing Norwegian composers that are not as famous as Edvard Grieg, but played an important role in the Norwegian music history. The concert lasted for almost 90 minutes including a short intermission. After the concert there was a reception that most people at the concert joined. A great variety of Norwegian cookies and goodies were prepared Debera Ellingboe and Luella Grangaard. People seemed to enjoy it so much.

From Norwegian Recipes, “Old-Time Favorites” by Norma Wangsness

Both open-faced and filled sandwiches are typical light Norwegian fare. The following is a compilation of some of our favorite sandwich combinations.

- Liver pate with beets and olives
- Sliced pork roast with cold sweet-sour cabbage (surkal)

- Crab meat with capers, mayonnaise, chives, cucumber, and lemon wedges
- Meatball with sweet pickle, pimiento, olive and parsley
- Pork with sweet mustard, cucumber, and green pepper
- Egg salad with curry, sweet pickle and parsley
- Cream cheese and pineapple
- Finely chopped pecans and seedless raisins blended with mayonnaise
- Mashed bananas, peanut butter, and mayonnaise
- Sardines and chopped hard-cooked eggs, moistened with lemon juice
- Crab meat and minced celery, mixed with salad dressing
- Ground leftover pot roast with celery and pickles, moistened with mayonnaise

Culture Social Event—Potluck Dinner

In celebration of Sytende May, we are having a Norwegian Smørbrød dinner/potluck. We are asking for volunteers to prepare Norwegian open-faced sandwiches. We have a list and directions for sandwich options to prepare.

In addition to the open-faced sandwiches, we will also need people to bring any of the following: potato salad, coleslaw, cucumber salad and ambrosia. If you would like to work on your cooking culture pin, this is a good chance to try a new recipe and have your lodge friends taste test your meal item. However, none of this is a requirement, you are also welcome to bring your own potluck item if you choose. Since this is a cold dinner, please do not bring anything that requires heating.

For sign up for specific items call Debera Ellingboe 760-699-7436 or e-mail deberaellingboe@yahoo.com or call Luella Grangaard 760-363-7704 or e-mail morongo2@verizon.net.

Making Family Connections through Sons of Norway

Carol Curtis and I have had an interesting and delightful week, discovering more about each other than we ever anticipated. We have both been attending Steinar's Norwegian dance classes and met for the first time there. My husband and I have only been in the dance group for 3 classes. During the first two sessions there were only 5 in the class, including the instructor. Last week Carol brought a book to share, since she and I had already discussed having relatives in Øyer Norway. When I saw the book, Sleeps Not The Valley, by Carmen J. Moe, it sure looked like the one I had gotten 10 years ago! Carol said that Carmen and she were cousins. When I got home, I verified that I had the same book, with a note to me from the author, Carmen. The note told me that my great-great grandfather, Johannes, born in 1822 and her great-great grandfather, Tosten, born 1815, were brothers.

We are both happy with this special connection that was revealed to us through sharing our heritage. It sure is a special benefit we are sharing through our membership activities in Sons of Norway.

Approximately 1 1/2 years ago I found my second cousin through work. Her husband was my patient and saw my name tag and we started talking and I later meet my cousin Kathy Pollari. She was a member of our lodge but moved back to the northwest. Last fall Kathy sent me an article from Portland of the Sons of Norway lodge. Part of the article was a photo of a woman in a library and it was discussing the lodge library. I didn't think much of it and put the article down for a couple of weeks and later re-read the article and noted the woman in the article was Ann Grangaard. I found the e-mail of the lodge president on the Sons of Norway International web site. Within an hour I had an e-mail from Ann. WE corresponded some and she said on occasion she visits our desert. Recently she was visiting and we met. Together we looked at my family tree and found each other on it. Now I wonder how many other people I am related to

Last social we had a few new visitors to our lodge. One of them was Jan Ludvigsen, a Brooklyn born Norwegian. He moved to Norway when he was 2 years old and came back to the US after confirmation. Hearing him speaking fluent Grimstad dialect was a delight. There was absolutely no accent in his Norwegian language. He has visited Norway frequently through all those years and one memorable visit was during the winter Olympics in Oslo in 1952. He is a snowbird and when he is in Minnesota he frequently visits the Norsota Lodge in Lakeville MN

BEST LAWYER

This took place in Charlotte North Carolina. A lawyer purchased a box of very rare and expensive cigars, then insured them against, among other things, fire.

Within a month, having smoked his entire stockpile of these great cigars, the lawyer filed a claim against the insurance company. In his claim, the lawyer stated the cigars were lost 'in a series of small fires.' The insurance company refused to pay, citing the obvious reason, that the man had consumed the cigars in the normal fashion. The lawyer sued and WON!
(Stay with me.)

Delivering the ruling, the judge agreed with the insurance company that the claim was frivolous. The judge stated nevertheless, that the lawyer held a policy from the company, in which it had warranted that the cigars were insurable and also guaranteed that it would insure them against fire, without defining what is considered to be unacceptable 'fire' and was obligated to pay the claim. Rather than endure lengthy and costly appeal process, the insurance company accepted the ruling and paid $15,000 to the lawyer for his loss of the cigars that perished in the 'fires'.

NOW FOR THE BEST PART... After the lawyer cashed the check, the insurance company had him arrested on 24 counts of ARSON!!! With his own insurance claim and testimony from the previous case being used against him, the lawyer was convicted of intentionally burning his insured property and was sentenced to 24 months in jail and a $24,000 fine. This true story won First Place in last year's Criminal Lawyers Award contest. ONLY IN AMERICA ... NO WONDER THE REST OF THE WORLD THINKS WE'RE NUTS!!!
