

A 64 YEAR TRADITION

The 2016-2017 Stoughton Norwegian Dancers

Come and enjoy the wonderful performance by these talented and athletic high school students from Stoughton Wisconsin. The Stoughton Norwegian Dancers travel during their school spring break to perform for audiences around the country. They have even traveled to Norway. This prestigious and popular group will certainly entertain and amaze you. This group will be performing seven times while in the desert - at elementary schools, a large RV park, and for a Rotary club, in addition to the below public performances. You don't want to miss this rare opportunity to experience this youthful enthusiasm in performing Traditional Norwegian Folk Dances.
